FINED $10 FOR LEERING. Patrol Wagon Guard Arrested His Driver for Annoying His Wife.

Joseph Churchill, a driver in the po-lice patrol stable of the West One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street station, was fined $10 in Harlem Police Court to-day for having annoyed the wife of Patrolman Maas, guard of the patrol wagon, whenever she brought her husband's meals to the stable.

According to Maas, Churchill leered at his wife yesterday as she was leaving the stable, and repeated his conduct to-day. Maas told him to desist, and the driver became abusive.

Then Mass placed Churchill under arrest, but could not take him to the station without the assistance of Patrolman Kipp. Churchill fought both policeman and threatened to have them dismissed. dred and Twenty-fifth street station,

NEW POLICE EXAMINERS.

It Will Be Two Months Before They Begin Their Duties.

President Roosevelt, of the Police Board, said to-day that the civil service requirements, made mandatory in the Police Department by the new law. would necessarily require at least two would necessarily require at least two months to get the Civil Service Board in shape for its duties.

Many captains are yet to be examined for their filness for a place on the Board. It has been decided that the clerk will be a Sergeant.

There are now 1.800 applications for places on the force, and it will take several months to examine these men. Only 300 have passed the physical examination. Mithout much doubt Inspector Conlin and Captains Pickett, Cortright and Mc-Cullagh will be four out of five members of the new board.
